DEDICATION

MISS MANUELE

This year, we, the class of 1984, would like to dedicate our yearbook to Miss Rosanne Manuele. She is a very special person who means a great deal to the student body. She always puts one-hundred percent into her job of teaching and coaching, and she is always there to help students in every possible way. Those of us who were fortunate enough to have her as a coach realized that she never gave up on us. She has taught us to take responsibilty and to be our own selves. We Thank you, Miss Manuele, for being yourself and for being around when we need you. We are sure that we will always remember you.

IN MEMORIAM

LYNN PAIGE

CLASS OF 1984

A child is loved from its birth
A joyful sight and filled with mirth.
Your life now comes to exist
Upon God's earth and on his list

Though your time with us wasn't long
The words you said were carried strong.
When you casted us a look
By your blue eyes, we were hooked.

At moments we still will ponder
Hoping to make the memories fonder.
As we end our school career
We only wish you were here.

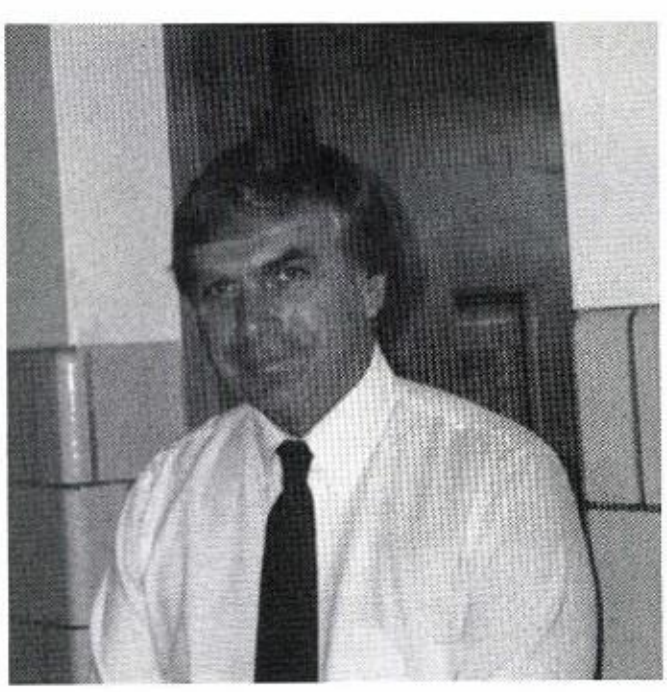
THANK YOU



We the class of 1984 would like to give a special "thank you" to our advisors, Miss Philbrook and Mr. Gifford. These two dedicated people have supported and encouraged us to strive forward, both inside and outside the classroom. They have helped to make our senior year a very special and enjoyable one. Thank you for everything. You will always be remembered.

Elma Ulrika Finch

"Elmie"

Valedictorian: Class President 2; Basketball Squad 1,2; Team 3, 1; Manager 1; Editor-in-Chief of Class Book 1; Literary Editor of Broadalbanian 1; Secretary of Athletic Assocation 3; Junior Play; Senior Play; Prize Speaking 3, 1; Class Will 4; Chorus 1,2,3,4.

Elmie is our only reddish redhead, and at that, the red is very faint — she won't admit it's there at all. Everyone will have to admit, however, that Elmie is an all-round girl, a friend, a pal, and a good sport. We have only to look at the list of activities above to realize that.

Our Elmie is small, but her athletic and scholastic achievements are great. She played regular forward on the basketball team for two years and managed the team this year, besides. The first three years found Elma studying dutifully most of the time, but this year she has managed to find a lot of time for social activities as well as for keeping hermarks sufficiently high to be our valedictorian.

In ending this, we may mention her memorable part in the Senior Play, and we hope she will be as successful at Vassar and wherever else she may be in the future, as she was in "Wild Ginger" and all of her other undertakings here.

Harold Cecil Eaton

"Spike"

Class President 2; Secretary 4; Basketball Squad 3,4; Baseball Team 3, 4; Junior Play; Senior Play; Business Manager of Class Book; Commencement Marshal 3; President of Athletic Association 4; Sport Editor of the "Broadalbanian"; Class Day Giftatorian.

Harold is one of the finest, most upright, and industrious members of our class, one of which we are justly proud. He is the only boy in the class to participate in athletics, being on the basketball squad, and a regular pitcher on the baseball team for two years. (Turn to the class ballot and you will find that he not only is the best athlete, but also the best PARLOR athlete).

During the first three years of our High School acquaintance with Harold, he was very modest and shy, but after finding romance in Gloversville, he has been hard to hold. If you stay up late enough nights, you will see a dark red Ford Fordor sedan go through town early in the morning, heading for Fox Hill. Even through Harold found his "heart's desire" out of town, he still enjoys his friends in town, and there are certainly a lot of them. If Harold's case is a serious as it seems, those wedding bells will soon be taking him away from us.

Kathleen Elizabeth Swears

"Sister"

Class Secretary 1; Junior Play; Senior Play; Basketball Squad 1; Team 2, 3,4; Manager 3; Captain 4; Business Manager of "Broadalbanian" 4; Class Will 4; Chorus 1,2,3,4.

The old adage "Good things come in small packages" does not apply to Kathleen. She's not small but she certainly is worth a lot to her friends and classmates as one may gather from the class ballot.

During her four years of high school, Sister has been very active, participating in every phase of high school life, especially athletics And too, whenever we were discouraged, we were always cheered by Sister's sunny smile and cheerful disposition. She was never above playing a harmless prank on one of her classmates, and one could often her Sister inquiring sweetly, "Got a tack?"

There is also a serious side to Kathleen and we could always depend on her as she did the small tasks as well as the large ones, to the best of her ability. We are certain that whatever Sister may choose for her life work, she will succeed, and we are wishing her the best of luck.

George Stephen Kross

"George"

Class Vice-President 2,1; Junior Play; Senior Play; Commencement Marshal 3; Class Giftatorian 4.

A big Buick draws up to the curb with the noise of brakes — and stops. Want a ride? A horn sounds outside your window. Want a ride? Everyone knows who is driving the above-mentioned Buick. It is our George ready to take us for a ride or else making his nightly tour of his friends' houses wishing them "good night".

George says he is quite bashful as far as girls are concerned. He really shouldn't be for wasn't he chosen the best looking boy in the class as well as the best dancer, doesn't he drive a nice car, and isn't he always ready to join in any fun that is suggested? He doesn't seem to realize that with just such a combination of qualities, any young lady's hero is endowed.

George has been, through out our high school course, an active member of the class. He has at all times, been willing to do his part and to help in every way possible. After four years' association with him in high school, we cay say with utmost sincerity that he is a good pal to have because he is dependable, a good sport, and a real friend.

Carol Gretchen Fraker

"Flicker"

Class Treasurer 2; Treasurer of Athletic Association1; Assistant Editor of Class Book 4; Senior Reporter of "Broadalbanian" 1; Class Historian 1; Chrous 1,2,3,4.

Twinkle, twinkle, little star! How I wonder what you are, up above the world so high . . ." And that, ladies and gentlemen, is Carol Gretchen Fraker. She is so quiet and reserved, so shy and reticent, one could hardly imagine her pushing herself boldly into the foreground or mingling with the "hoi polloi", and yet she makes her presence known with a gentle insistence.

On the whole, she is quite a charming personality but she has one outstanding fault which drives her friends to distraction. She is prone to adopt certain phrases or hobbies which she dwells upon continually. First it was "Hail to thee. blithe spirit", which soon changed to a passion for counting the calories she consumed daily. Her most annoying mania was that of discoursing lengthily upon her Bostonian ancestry and the great uncle who was one of the "forty-niners".

Flicker doesn't like boys and her greatest ambition is to become the first woman president of the United States. At any rate, she has made extensive preparation for political life.

"Sonya"

Salutatorian; Class President 4; Class Secretary 2; Art Editor of the "Broadalbanian" and Class Book 4; Editor-in-Chief of "Broadalbanian" 4; Junior Play; Senior Play; Chorus 1,2, 3,4.

Eloquent words, which would reduce the average person into a stuttering imbecile if he tried to use them, are heard reechoing through the halls of B. H. S. Gazing in the direction from which his voluble flow of language is coming with equanimity and fluency, there finally trips into view, not the expected college professor or carping critic, but a short, dark-haired, blue-eyed girl. You are scarcely able to believe your eyes, for it would seem that this coquettish damsel is capable of uttering only silly nothings or senseless chitchat.

Formerly rather dignified and quiet, four years of informal high school has released her innate craving for fun, and flinging dignity to the four winds she now indulges in nonsensical school affairs with enthusiasm and ardor. Nevertheless, with equal zeal she has occupied some responsible positions in school and has faithfully filled them with precision and accuracy.

Some of her outstanding characteristics are loyalty to her friends, courtesy and impartiality to everyone.

Surely the above descriptions could fit no one else but Sonya.

Stanton Charles Sabattis

"Stant"

Long Lake High School 2,3.

After moving several times from Broadalbin to Long Lake and back again, Stanton finally decided that Broadalbin would be the best place from which to graduate, so he has been here with us all this year. Long Lake's loss was our gain, and we were especially glad to have Stant with us, not only because he would be a valuable addition to any class, but also because there were so few boys in our class.

Instead of the usual "Three Muskateers" we are fortunate in having FOUR, Stanton, Howard, Sky and Art. At first it seemed as though these boys had formed a bachelor's club but it soon became evident that was not the idea at all, as some of our class members of the opposite sex can testify. Stanton likes some of the town girls but seems to direct most of his attention to those from the outside districts. Maybe it's because he thinks the outside pupils should stick together.

Stanton was voted the most orginal, most artistic, and most ambitious boy in our class. With such a combination of characteristic he will probably be either an inventor, scientist or else a creator of some famous cartoon character like "Mickey Mouse".

Scotia High School 2; Class Treasurer 1; Junior Play; Basketball Squad 1; Team 3,4; Business Manager of Class Book 4; Class Will 4.

Basketball fan and player, baseball devotee, our best dancer, full of pep, vim, and "vinegar" is Normie Lemon Phillips, one of our Senior coquettes. She has dark "Naturelle" curly hair — big, brown eyes, and boy! what a temper! She is quite popular with those boys who dare to brave the aforementioned temper. The number has increased since they have found out that her bark is worse than her bite.

Normie always planned (or said she did) to keep Marianne company with a parrot and a pussy cat in an old maids' establishment, but lately she's changed her mind and writes in everyone's autograph book that her ambition is to get married. She'll have to get a husband who is domestically inclined, however, because she would rather read or dance than to cook and do dishes or other household tasks. She is rated as one of our best parlor athletes but if we voted for the best kitchen athlete, she certainly would be somewhere near the end of the list.

Here's hoping her future will be rosy whatevery she may decide to do in the end.

Howard William Weiderman

"Bill"

Senior Play.

The first bell is ringing — but its peal is being drowned out by a loud, peculiar noise. What is it? Why, everyone knows now! Howdie is the proud possessor of a model T Ford that actually goes! His noontimes formerly occupied in walking home, eating dinner and walking back to school, are now devoted to taking young ladies to school, even if they do have to ride on the running board.

One of Bill's favorite occupations at present seems to be that of assisting Sky in posing his subjects for photographs. Howdie holds on to the subject while Sky snaps the picture.

Have you ever noticed how sleepy Howard is every Monday morning. It is not because he has been out at some social function the night before, but because he actually does work from 12 o'clock Sunday night til time for school Monday morning.

Upon being interviewed he stated that he enjoys staying out late nights and playing cards, that his life occupation was to be working in the shoddy mill, supporting his car and the "fems", and that he is very bright because he always gets his work done (?).

Geneva Emma White

"Genevie"

Class Secretary 2; Assistant Editor of Class Book 4; Assistant Art Editor of "Broadalbanian" 4.

Who is the tall blonde stepping with an air of nonchalance from the bus in the morning with an armful of books, or from the Chevvie at noon with a sweet smile? Why, that's Genevie, who rides on the school bus from Stever's Mills if her private bus line isn't running.

Geneva sometimes pretends to be very crabby, but she can't scare any of us for we know that she's not that way at all. She does get vexed at Sky in Latin III class, though, and considers his antics both childish and idiotic. Like some others, she is nevertheless secretly amused.

Genevie is envied by many of her school mates because she can get her homework done sometimes without even taking books home. She has been known to have her work all done for the next day by last period, in which case, she devotes her spare moments to day dreaming.

Whenever we have a food sale, Geneva sends the most delectable food, and it's not always the same thing either. The cocoanut layer cakes, home-made rolls, and various kinds of pies are among our best sellers, and they prove to everyone that Geneva will be the model housewife of our class.

Arthur Frederick Frank

"Art"

Junior Play; Senior Play.

Shakespeare's immortal lines, "And then the whining schoolboy with his satchel and shining morning face, creeping like snail unwillingly to school", do not apply to Arthur when he steps out of the bus, for with cap cocked jauntily over one ear, he swaggers along with face aglow with youthful joy, either because he has successfully completed his lessons (?) or more likely because he doesn't have to milk the cows again for several hours.

Being the only genuine farmer in the class, he considers himself a connoiseur of cows and unconcernedly assures us that Guernseys are mean cows while Holsteins are unsurpassed in every respect.

While at New York, he gallantly entertained two fair damsels by taking them (not on the same night) to the theatre and to our surprise developed into quite a ladies' man.

Cast in class plays, he has impersonated to perfection certain idiotic and ludicrous characters.

Fifty years from now we hope to find him a steadfast farmer, complete with straw hat and drawl, and entirely oblivious of the fact that he ever studied History C or wrestled with the mysteries of trignometry.

Elizabeth Estella Bartlett
"Bettie"

Class Treasurer 3; Prize Speaking 2, 4; Senior Play; Basketball Squad 1, 2, 3, 4; Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4.

Here we have a speaker and singer. Which will she finally become? That is the question that is bothering her right now. Maybe she can find some position where she can use both talents to advantage as will probably be the case if she enters Binghamton Bible School as she intends now.

Bettie is one of the best managers in the class. She can get more work out of a group of people than most of the rest of us. She has always done her share, and sometimes more, in any work which we have undertaken. We are all grateful to her for playing the piano for dancing and basketball games.

Elizabeth lives right near the school, so if we ever need anything at the last minute, when getting ready for a dance or play, we run right over to Bartlett's and get it.

Who doesn't remember that touching scene in "Wild Ginger" when "Rachel" and "Jake" found each other after a long separation? If she can carry off scenes in real life with equal poise and assurance, her future is assured.

Schuyler Wilson Lathers
"Sky"

Junior Play; Senior Play.

Sky is the one and only photographer of the Senior Class. He likes to collect all the negatives he can find and make them into pictures, although we're sorry to say the results are not always good. He finds some willing and some unwilling subjects for his photos, but he catches the unwilling one unawares at times, and such results are especially amusing.

Mr. Schuyler Wilson Lathers is one of those long fellows with light hair and blue eyes. Except for showing a quick temper once in a while, he is a very gentle and happy-go-lucky fellow.

For some unknown reason Sky has developed the accent of an English baron. This may be a help to him, but not to many others, especially his roomates on the Washington trip.

It just doesn't do for Sky to travel in a large crowd, he gets so romantic. The first appearance of this weakness was noticed on the Washington trip. Come to think of it, it may have been her name that had such an effect on him. Let's see, what was it again, Sky? His romantic attitude reappeared on the Massachusetts trip, where he entertained (?) everyone by singing such tender pieces as "Moonlight and Roses" and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life".

Irene Gertrude Skapik

"Skippy"

Johnstown High School 1; Chorus 2, 3, 4.

Who is the next victim, Skippy? We all wonder. For this is the fair maiden who is responsible for broken hearts, all the way from Johnstown to Chatham. But it is so easy for butterflies to flit from one flower to another, and distant pastures always look more green . . . .

It was in Irene's sophomore year that she giggled her way into B. H. S.—and giggling has been her passport ever since. Skippy has a personality that can be described by only one word — effervescent. She bubbles over with vivacity and carries the reputation of "slinging a good line". Besides, she dances nicely and dresses well, and is very easy to look at, especially since she went on a diet and got a Naturelle wave. This, then, is the flame around which the moths hover.

Upon her arrival at Broadalbin, Irene rejoiced that she found new worlds to conquer. But much of the territory had already been taken, and what was left did not seem to be satisfactory. So Skippy has been skipping around from place to place ever since.

We hope that some day Skippy's good-natured smile will attract a moth in fire-proof armor.

Pauline Harriet Anderson
"Pauline"

Class Treasurer 4; Basketball Team 3, 4; Senior Reporter on "Broadalbanian" 4.

Pauline is the youngest member of our class, but that doesn't seem to prevent her from taking part in every current activity. For example take dancing. Most of us had a iittle start on her, but it didn't take long for her to add this to her numerous other accomplishments.

She has a quick temper but it cools off so quickly that she never loses any friends on account of it. She isn't interested in many of the high school boys—she seems to prefer them at least slightly older and a little further away than the village of Broadalbin itself.

Pauline manages to get good marks in her subjects and enjoys her classes, especially History C (?). She is planning to take a P. G. course next year while waiting to get old enough to enter some other school.

Pauline played on the basketball team two years, is the class treasurer, and is always ready to help or partake in any of the class functions. Would you like to know where she gets the pep and energy to do all these things? Well, she's a Mellin's Food athlete. Consequently she has become a little overweight, but you never need to worry about her not doing her share of the work.

"Marianne"

Senior Play; Assistant Editor of Class Book 4; Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4.

Marianne, christened Marian, and sometimes called "Mickey" is well known to all in Broadalbin and lots of people further away. She is about five feet seven, with black hair, green eyes, a dark complexion and freckles (?). Marianne, you see from the above description, is IRISH and very proud of it. Consequently her favorite color is green.

Her devotion to the Democratic Party in general, and to President Roosevelt in particular, is equalled only by the similar devotion of Carol. These two staunch supporters of their party were delighted at their victory in the campaign of 1932, regardless of the fact that neither will be able to vote for a long time.

Marianne, up until the last two years hasn't been apparently much attracted to the opposite sex, but since her trip to Washington she has been very popular with them. Now that she has such a variety to choose from, she can't decide on THE one, but it will probably turn out all right for it's probably what is known as "puppy love".

Well, to end with something nice about Marianne, we may say that she is a girl with a personality all her own and one who will succeed through life as she has thus far.

Thelma Imeldia MacVean

"Thelm"

Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4.

Poor Thelma, she had the bad luck to be named Thelma Imelda. Of course, it rhymes, but in our opinion, that does not justify it for she is more practical than poetical. Her initials would give her a nice nickname "TIM", but that has never been universally adopted.

Thelmie is short, not fat, still not thin, has brown hair and eyes. She is usually very good-natured, but sometimes she shows a good, old Scotch temper and flares up just like a firecracker; when it's all over, it hasn't amounted to anything. For some unknown reason, she likes to go to Johnstown to the Grange dances. Is it because of a good dance floor and orchestra, or some of the regular attendants? She'll have to answer that for you.

Thelmie is not too studious but she usually succeeds in passing her exams and has always stayed right with the rest of the class.

All in all, Thelmie is a great sport and a good friend. Everyone in school likes her, even though some may know her only slightly, for she always has a smile and a greeting for a school chum.
